

JANUARY 8, 1833.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. R. M. JOHNSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported the following bill:

A BILL

To amend an act entitled "An act to regulate the pay of the army when employed on fatigue duty."

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 seventeen cents per day shall be hereafter allowed to the non-
4 commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, of the army, em-
5 ployed upon fatigue duty, agreeably to the said act, and in
6 lieu of the compensation provided thereby; and that so much
7 of the said act as authorizes the issuing of ardent spirits shall
8 be, and the same is hereby, repealed.
